All cultures sharing Nitmiluk.

Welcome to Nitmiluk, the heart of Jawoyn Country.

Nitmiluk, with its breathtaking gorges, ancient rock art, and sacred landscapes, holds deep cultural significance for the Jawoyn people. For thousands of generations, our ancestors have lived, cared for, and celebrated this land. Today, we are proud to share this special place with you, and we invite you to connect with its beauty, history, and spirit.

As you explore Nitmiluk, we ask that you walk gently on this land, respect its stories, and take the time to listen to the whispers of the past. Whether you're paddling through the gorges, hiking the trails, or simply soaking in the serenity, we hope you feel the same sense of wonder and connection that we do.

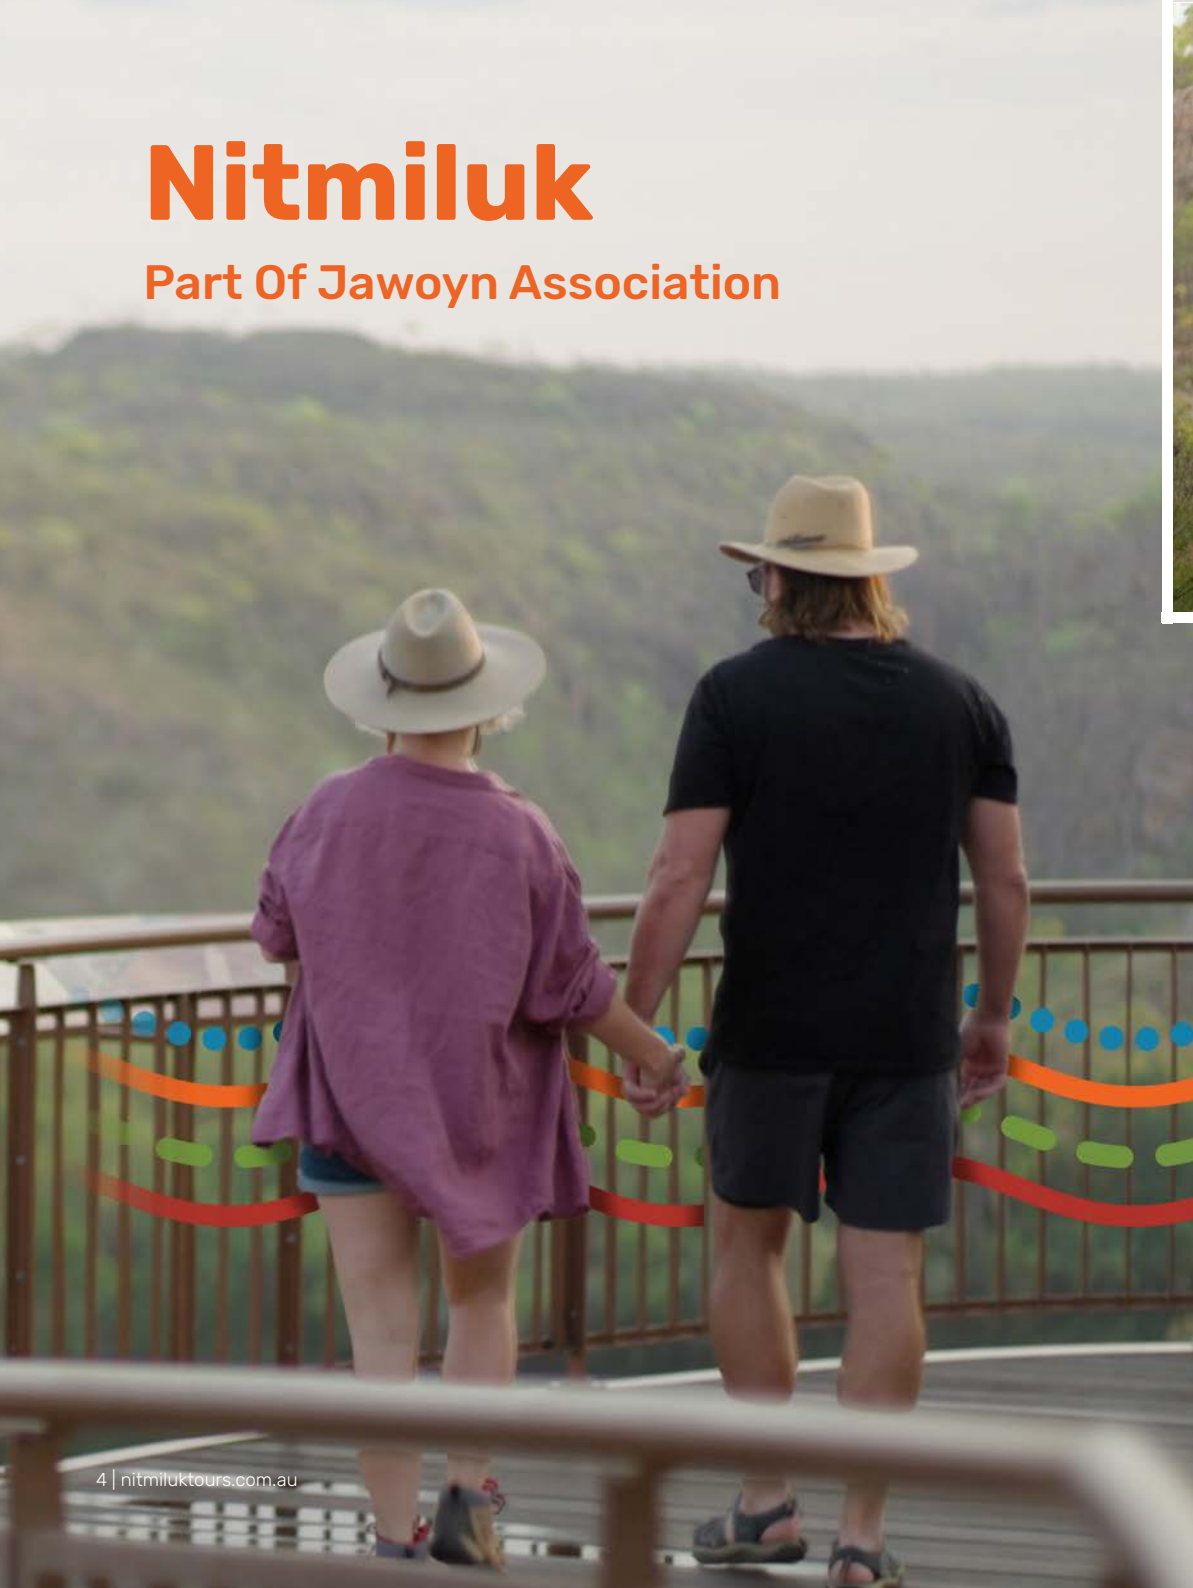

On behalf of the Jawoyn Association, I extend our warmest welcome to you. May your journey through Nitmiluk be filled with discovery, respect, and joy.

Part Of Jawoyn Association

When you visit Nitmiluk, you are sharing our vision for the future.

Nitmiluk National Park is owned by the Jawoyn people, made up of 17 clans with the common vision of sharing our country. The collective Jawoyn Association is a progressive, forward thinking business enterprise which provides employment and training for local people.

They have never wavered from the original Elder's vision of bringing the Jawoyn people together as one nation, caring for country, and developing economic independence.

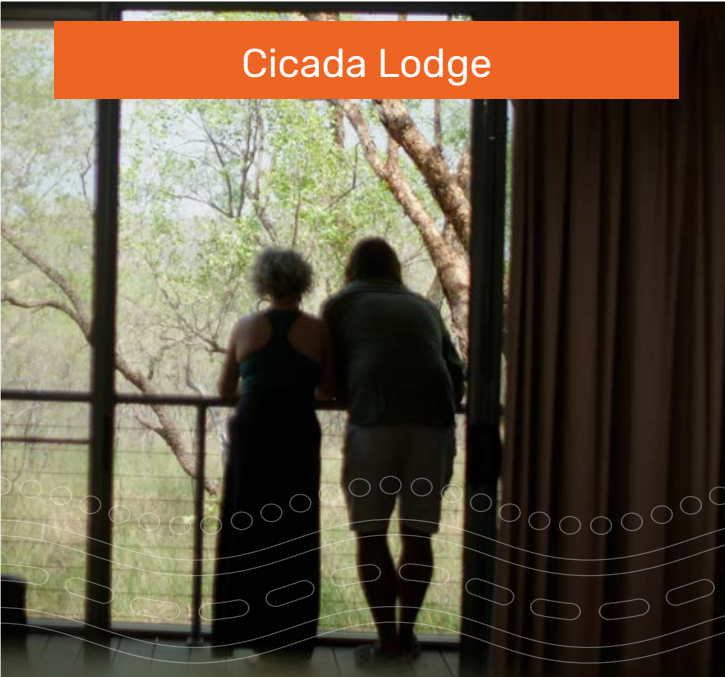

All proceeds that flow from Jawoyn businesses are re-invested into the community, for human services, employment, education and successful partnerships in tourism and land management.

We look forward to sharing our country with you.
